

How to interview me: Your Name

Your credentials

Things like your job title, the name of your podcast, website, or company, and any unique credentials. Also include phonetic pronunciation if people often say it wrong.

A brief bio

Describe yourself in a few sentences.

Useful resources

Links to media assets or more information about you. Things like your LinkedIn profile, hi-res headshot, websites, etc.

How I'll bring value to your listeners:

These are the ideas, big or small, that you want to talk about.

Topic in your niche

- Your expertise or unique/take on the topic
- How it relates to your experience
- Why you're uniquely qualified to talk about it and what their listener's stand to gain

Topic in your niche

- Your expertise or unique/take on the topic
- How it relates to your experience
- Why you're uniquely qualified to talk about it and what their listener's stand to gain

What I'm working on:

Any new projects that might be relevant to the interviewer's audience.

Project name: Why you're excited about it, why it's relevant, and when will it be live.

Other things I've been featured in:

Links to articles, podcast episodes, TV appearances, etc. that you're especially proud of or that you want to talk about in this interview.

Title of content + link

Title of content + link